8th November 2017

Dear parents and carers,

After our success at performing the African story, as part of multicultural week, reception and nursery are getting ready to put on another show – this time it will be linked to the Christmas story.

The show is called 'Whoops-a-daisy Angel' and is all about an angel who always forgets things but luckily she/he saves the day. The children will be singing, dancing and dressing up and the performance will be on Wednesday 13th December in the morning. Like last time, there is so much learning that the children get from doing this, so it would be fantastic if everyone was able to get involved.

However, if you do not want your child to take part, please can you sign the slip below, explaining why, then return it to Ms Bibby tomorrow. It is important that we know now, so that we don't include your child in the rehearsals, or give them a part to practice.

If you are happy for your child to take part, there is no need to sign the slip, just tell your child's teacher!

Thank you – I'm sure you are looking forward to it already ☺
